Living Divided No More: Retiring the God Presumption

Caroline Fairless, Sally Z. Hare and Jean Richardson

September 12, 2018 to September 14, 2018

In this unique retreat, Caroline Fairless invites you join her for a Circle of Trust, grounded in Parker J. Palmer's Circle of Trust® approach and introducing her new book The God Presumption and her insights into how that keeps us living a divided life. Dr. Jean Richardson and Dr. Sally Z. Hare, national Circle of Trust facilitators, will join her in creating the space for this retreat, bringing their own unique gifts to the experience.

The safe space of this retreat offers you the opportunity to glimpse your own hidden wholeness, to rejoin soul and role, even in a world that feels divided. This is a creative endeavor that asks us to reclaim our own story and to begin to notice and name how our culture's presumption of God may add to our own sense of dividedness.

Our lives are not our experiences, but how we make meaning from our experiences. Researchers in leadership and adult development today are affirming that successful adults are those who remember, reflect and recreate their stories. You will have the chance to hear from Caroline about her own experience as well as to listen to your Self.

Caroline Fairless is the author of several books in addition to the recently- published The God Presumption, including The Space Between Church & Not-Church ~ A Sacramental Vision for the Healing of Our Planet, and The Dance of the Caterpillars ~ In a Time Before Texting. She blogs at www.restoringthewaters.com. Dr. Jean M. Richardson serves as the director of Kirkridge Retreat Center. Working in a variety of capacities in retreat settings over the last 23 years and offers her life experience as a community organizer, Presbyterian minister and educator. Sally Z. Hare, Ph.D., earned her doctorate at the University of South Carolina and has completed post-doctoral work in settings as diverse as the Harvard University Leadership Institute, the Center for Contemplative Mind in Society, and the Institute of Noetic Science's Healing Arts of Bali. She is president of still learning, inc, and Singleton Distinguished Professor Emerita at Coastal Carolina University.
