

Apr 24-26 $310 Commuter rates Earlybird $35 off	John Dear, SJ, is a Jesuit, peace activist, former FOR executive, nominee for the Nobel Peace Award, prolific writer and charismatic speaker on spiritual nonviolence. His books include an autobiography, A Persistent Peace, and also Seeds of Nonviolence, and the popular Living Peace.	Gandhi, King, Day & Merton – Peacemaking Ancestors. Author, pastor and activist John Dear will lead a weekend of prayer, small group reflection and Bible study related to what fortified and inspired these great spiritual leaders and activists for justice and peace. CEUs
May 27-31 $445 Commuter rates Earlybird $35 off Manual $30	Janet Chisholm & Don Christensen. Janet is Kirkridge Peace Coordinator; the CCP founder, national coordinator and lead trainer; and an activist. Don is a pastor, university instructor, lead CCP trainer and international activist. (Wednesday dinner through Sunday lunch)	Training of Trainers. Strengthen facilitation skills and the ability to use interactive and mutual learning techniques. Help others find their power for peacemaking and deepen your own. Practice presentations. Learn to offer CCP training. CEUs
Sep 10-13 $395 Commuter rates Earlybird $35 off	Janet Chisholm & Don Christensen. Janet is Kirkridge Peace Coordinator; the CCP founder, national coordinator and lead trainer; and an activist. (Thursday dinner through Sunday lunch)	Creating a Culture of Peace. (CCP) Discover your own power for peacemaking during a spiritually-grounded, interactive and skill-building weekend. Explore inner and outer peace, the nature of active nonviolence, how social change occurs and how community forms to make change happen. Plan your own projects. CEUs
Sep 18-20 $310 Commuter rates Earlybird $35 off	Daniel Berrigan, SJ, is a poet and writer of prophetic power, a Jesuit activist for justice and peace. Elizabeth McAlister is founder and member of Jonah House, a community committed to faithful nonviolence and resistance in order to disarm the world.	Community or Empire – Which Will We Build? We are in a profound struggle and must connect across barriers. We cannot change alone. We have choices to make! (A celebration of Daniel Berrigan at his last annual Kirkridge retreat. CEUs

Peace & Justice Programs, KIRKRIDGE, Bangor, PA, 610-588-1793, www.kirkridge.org

Oct 24-Nov 6 $1250 plus international airfare from/to Wash.D.C.	INTERFAITH PILGRIMAGE to the Holy Land. Travel to Israel-Palestine. Visit religious and cultural sites, meet Israeli and Palestinian peacemakers, join the Palestinian Olive Harvest and stay in a local home. The delegation is planned by Interfaith Peacebuilders. Go to "Pilgrimage" at www.kirkridge.org for an application and more information.	Peacemakers in the Midst of Conflict. This is an opportunity to listen, build relationships, promote dialogue, and learn about the real life situation and politics of the region. Participants travel to Jerusalem and Bethlehem, throughout Israel and the West Bank with local guides.
Nov 6-8 $310 Commuter rates Earlybird $35 off	Richard Deats, a writer, editor, story teller, activist and trainer, has traveled throughout the world working for justice and peace. He is a former executive and editor for the U.S. Fellowship of Reconciliation.	Love Force – The Peacemaker’s Way. A Reflections on the call to live on the growing edge of history with cues from peacemakers Hildegard Goss-Mayr, Aung San Suu Kyi, Jim Lawson, Thich Nhat Hanh, Abdul Ghaffar Kahn and Abraham Heschel. How do we reach out to enemies? CEUs
Nov 13-15 $310 Commuter rates Earlybird $35 off	George Lakey led 1,500 workshops on 5 continents, taught in universities, founded activist organizations, and authored 7 classics on nonviolent change. His Training for Change group empowered activists in 20 countries. FOR awarded him the MLKing Prize. He teaches at Swarthmore.	Making Activism Smarter and Thriving Personally.” A sacrifice paradigm gets old if we are activists for the long run. We deserve ways that get better results AND support an abundant personal life. Let’s explore and have fun! CEUs
Dec 2-6 $445 Commuter rates Earlybird $35 off Manual is $30	Janet Chisholm & T. Michael Rock. Janet is Kirkridge Peace Coordinator; the CCP founder, national coordinator and lead trainer; and an activist. T. Michael is a U.C.C. pastor, lead CCP trainer, human sexuality trainer, and a justice activist and advocate. (Wednesday dinner through Sunday lunch)	Training of Trainers for “Creating a Culture of Peace,” “CCP,” Nonviolence Training. Strengthen facilitation skills and the ability to use interactive and mutual learning techniques. Help others find their power for peacemaking and deepen your own. Practice presentations. Learn to offer CCP training. CEUs

TO REGISTER: Janet Lewis, Registrar, 610-588-1793, Kirkridge, 2495 Fox Gap Road, Bangor, PA 18013, www.kirkridge.org